

PRE-ORDER FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM PRESS

The Properties of Perpetual Light is an homage to the work of the activist-writer, which author Julian Aguon describes as “the work of bearing witness, wrestling with the questions of one’s day, telling children the truth.” With prose and poetry both bracing and quiet, Aguon weaves together stories from his childhood in the villages of Guam with searing political commentary about everything from nuclear weapons to climate change. Throughout the book, Aguon grapples with one heart-breaking loss after another by immersing himself in the beauty of his island, the magic of Micronesia, and the wisdom of his favorite books and elders. Deploying the feminist insight that the personal is political, The Properties of Perpetual Light illuminates a path for others to confront injustice, to find their way, and to “write as if everything they love is on the line.”

“I did not know I needed this book until it had me in its embrace like the oldest and dearest of friends, from the very first page.”

- Naomi Klein, Senior Correspondent at The Intercept and author of The Shock Doctrine and This Changes Everything

“A breathtaking book and I mean it ... A call not only for justice but for a brand-new covenant with our world.”

- Junot Díaz, author of The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao, Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction
